FUNDING OPPORTUNITY:
Awards for Faculty

FON:
20200408-HB

AGENCY:
National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH), Division of Research Programs

ITEM:
Notice seeking applications for the Awards for Faculty program. The purpose of this program is to strengthen the humanities at Historically Black Colleges and Universities, Hispanic-Serving Institutions, and Tribal Colleges and Universities by encouraging and expanding humanities research opportunities for individual faculty and staff members. Awards support individuals pursuing scholarly research that is of value to humanities scholars, students, and/or general audiences.

ACTION:
Applications are due April 8, 2020. Awards are up to $5,000 per month.

BRAIN Initiative: Biology and Biophysics of Neural Stimulation and Recording Technologies (R01 Clinical Trials Optional)

FON:
RFA-NS-20-006

AGENCY:
National Institutes of Health (NIH), Department of Health and Human Services (HHS)

ITEM:
Notice seeking grant applications in two related but distinct areas. The first is to systematically characterize, model, and validate the membrane, cellular, circuit, and adaptive-biological responses of neuronal and non-neuronal cells to various types of stimulation technologies. The second is to understand the biological and bioinformatic content of signals recorded from neuronal and non-neuronal cells and circuits. Development of new technologies, therapies and disease models is outside the scope of this FOA. Activities related to enabling the simultaneous use of multiple recording or stimulation technologies are allowed.

ACTION:
Optional letters of intent are due 30 days prior to the application due date. Applications are due March 24, 2020, then early February, June, and October through 2022. Approximately $10 million is available for up to 15 awards.

FUNDING OPPORTUNITY:
Conducting Public Health Research in South America

FON:
RFA-GH-20-005

AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Department of Health and Human Services (HHS)

ITEM:
Notice seeking applications to conduct and monitor epidemiologic and laboratory-based projects, surveillance, and research of important diseases in South America (Brazil, Bolivia, Argentina, Chile, Peru, Uruguay, Paraguay, Venezuela, Guyana, Suriname, and Ecuador) including, but not limited to, activities to address acute febrile illness, antimicrobial resistance and hospital acquired infections, respiratory infections and influenza, enteric illnesses, and other public health threats of local importance; and, incorporate the results of these public health activities into operational disease detection, prevention, and response or control programs in South America, strengthen public health capacity as outlined in the Global Health Security Agenda, and disseminate findings across the region, with partners, and globally.

FON:
RFA-HG-20-008

AGENCY:
National Institutes of Health (NIH), Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), National Human Genome Research Institute (NHGRI)

ITEM:
Notice seeking applications to develop and implement a Mendelian Genomics Data Coordination Center (MGDCC) for the Mendelian Genomics Research Consortium. The MGDCC will be responsible for managing the release of data and findings generated under the program, as well as program outreach, ensuring maximum utility for the research community. The MGDCC will also coordinate program logistics, supporting effective working groups and meetings.

ACTION:

New Investigator Gateway Awards for Collaborative T1D Research (R03 Clinical Trial Not Allowed)

FON:
RFA-DK-19-026

AGENCY:
National Institutes of Health (NIH), Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), National Institute of Diabetes and Digestive and Kidney Diseases (NIDDK)

ITEM:
Notice seeking applications for a robust pipeline of talented new investigators that will continue to embark on successful careers in T1D research. In addition to providing support for preliminary research, the Gateway program provides an opportunity for new Program Directors/Principal Investigators (PD/PIs) to pursue their studies within the intellectual environment of a select number of large, ongoing collaborative research programs. Embedding awardees within an established scientific framework in each of these consortia will provide unique opportunities for New and Early Stage Investigators to increase their understanding of key questions in the field, to network, and to establish unique and potentially long-lasting collaborations that will propel their careers forward.

FON:
RFA-AG-21-003

AGENCY:
National Institutes of Health (NIH), Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), National Institute on Aging (NIA)

ITEM:
Notice seeking applications to develop, characterize, and validate new, unconventional, or innovative non-rodent mammalian models of late-onset (sporadic) Alzheimer's Disease (AD). These new models are expected to recapitulate molecular, cellular, neuropathological, behavioral, and/or cognitive hallmarks and aspects of late-onset AD. Research supported under this FOA is expected to provide new investigativetools to identify the gaps in current knowledge related to molecular mechanisms of late-onset AD and identify potential therapeutic targets.

ACTION:
Optional letters of intent are due September 7, 2020. Applications are due October 7, 2020. Approximately $5.25 million is available to support four awards.

Public Health and Health Systems Partnerships to Increase Colorectal Cancer Screening in Clinical Settings

FON:
CDC-RFA-DP20-2002

AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Department of Health and Human Services (HHS)

ITEM:
Notice seeking applications to partner with health systems and individual primary care clinics to implement evidence-based interventions to increase colorectal cancer screening uptake among applicant defined populations age 50-75 years that have colorectal cancer screening rates lower than the national, regional, or local rate.

ACTION:
Optional letters of intent are due February 5, 2020. Applications are due March 17, 2020. Informational conference calls will be held for potential applicants on January 29, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m., ET.
